Staff Change

The one staff change that has occurred for the 2013 tax return filing season is Rodney Sommer; Rod has retired from preparing tax returns. We have other staff on hand that will be happy to handle your tax preparation needs.

Attention Company News !!!

The staff of R & J Salina Tax Service, Inc. would like to welcome the new owners of the firm. Rod Sommer has sold the firm to a long time associate and his wife. Timothy Jr EA (Tim Jr) & Jessica Graham are now the proud new owners of the firm.

Tim Jr has been with the firm for 13 years now. He is one of the year-around tax preparer's in the firm. In addition, another long time associate, Judith (Judee) Bloyd, remains the other full time year-around preparer. Also included in the preparer staff is Jerry Kobbeman who is continuing to stay part-time during tax season.

The firm has kept a lot of the same personnel but has undergone some interior updating. We hope that our clients visit the office to view our new look and let us assist you in your 2013 tax needs.

We look forward to many more years serving our current and future clients. If you have any questions please call or stop by and see the new layout!!

2013 Tax Return Filing Season

The Internal Revenue Service has announced that 2013 tax returns can be filed for individuals starting January 31st, 2014. We at R & J Salina

Tax Service, Inc. would like you to bring your tax documents into the office as soon as you receive all of them for the year. This allows us to prepare your return to have it completed and ready to submit when we get the green light to electronically file your return.
